

T.H.E BOOK FAIR

Teacher Appreciation Gift Idea for Wednesday, May 6, 2015

*Message for Wednesday: Tuscany Heights will be having our last book fair for this school year May 4-8th. We are making gift certificates available for you to purchase for your teacher in lieu of a book. This will allow teachers to purchase books they need for their classrooms. All proceeds from the school book fair are used in the library. This is not a PTA fundraiser. If you would like to choose this option, please fill out this portion and send it with your money to school, OR come to the library to purchase a gift certificate during the book fair. Thank you!
