Join Ray Ulibarri, Percussion Director at Ronald Reagan High School as he inspires, educates, and introduces students to the world of percussion. Prior to teaching at Reagan High School in San Antonio Texas, Mr. Ulibarri was the percussion director at Klein Forest High School and Pomona High School in Arvada Colorado. During his tenure with Pomona, the band won an unprecedented 11 State Marching Band Championships. In addition the Percussion ensemble was a two time medalist at the WGI World Championships and perennial finalist. In 2002-03 Mr. Ulibarri was the percussion instructor of the University of Colorado Golden Buffalo Marching Band. Mr. Ulibarri is also the former Percussion Arranger for the Crossmen Drum and Bugle Corps and the former caption Head of the Bluecoats Drum and Bugle Corps and has arranged for the front ensemble of the Blue Knights World Percussion Ensemble. As an arranger Ray has arranged music to be played in two Tournament of Roses Parades. His custom percussion arrangements are in demand throughout the country, and he is an active music adjudicator and clinician throughout the country.
